

ST JOSEPH'S ROMAN CATHOLIC CHURCH GUILDFORD

The new Roman Catholic Church sits in a redundant chalk quarry off York Road in Guildford. The unusual topography of the site allows the church to be built on top of various meeting rooms and halls, with car parking at the lowest level. The complex geometry of the plan and roof form create an interesting new church typography.

