

ARTS BLOCK - HAMPTON HILL JUNIOR SCHOOL

Nye Saunders have carried out a number of projects at Hampton Hill Junior School, the most recent being a new art classroom. The building was designed to be economical to build, but to look contemporary. The crisp flat roofed design with cedar ship-lap cladding contrasts with the brick and pitched roof of the main school building. Sliding folding doors allow the classroom to spill out into the playground.

