

TORMEAL SCHOOL, GUILDFORD – The JCS Building (Performing Arts Centre)

The JCS Building was the second major building project for Tormead School, and provides a new purpose designed performing arts building for the senior school. The building incorporates five new classrooms for drama and music teaching together with practice rooms and an acoustically designed auditorium.

