

TORMEAL SCHOOL – SHACKLETON HOUSE (Junior School Building)

Shackleton House was the first major building project for Nye Saunders at Tormead School. The three storey building contains classrooms and a music room plus living accommodation on the top floor for newly qualified teachers. The traditional design suits the location of the building in a largely residential street.

