

House in Petworth

We designed and obtained planning and listed building consent for a conversion to a listed house to contain a swimming pool. The vernacular design incorporated green oak framing to the upper walls with a plinth of local stone and handmade brick. The superstructure was formed in Green Oak to give a barn-like interior.

