

House in Oxfordshire

Taking a rather uninspiring extended Victorian cottage in a stunning location, Nye Saunders transformed it into a grand country house. The elevations were over-clad in a Georgian style for the rear with Dutch gables to the side and front elevations, complete with the correct brick bonding and stone detailing. We also provided detail design for the re-fitting of the interiors to suit the new exterior.

