

House in Bramshill

Nye Saunders obtained planning and listed building consent for extensive alterations and refurbishment of a semi-derelict Grade II listed farmhouse, to provide a large family house. Our involvement included inspecting the works on site which included re-roofing, oak joinery, re-pointing of historic brickwork and new lead roofing and detailing.

