

Cottage in Godalming

Nye Saunders obtained planning and listed building consent to transform an oak framed cart shed which was being used for garaging into a self contained flat for an elderly relative. The design incorporated a ground floor bedroom, bathroom, kitchen and living room with guest accommodation on the first floor, all within the historic timber frame.

