

House in Bordon

Nye Saunders obtained planning consent for a large two storey extension and detached garage and games room to a Victorian house. We also provided building regulations drawings for the extension and complete refurbishment and re-planning of the existing house to provide two further bedrooms and a ground floor garden room.

