

Cottage in Woking

The project involved the extension and renovation of a Grade II listed property to provide additional bedrooms and improved ground floor accommodation including a green oak garden room.

