

BURLEY'S - Croydon

Client: - Turners Hill Developments

The works comprised the construction of high specification flats within the grounds of the Listed Crabbet Park House. The design was by others before Nye Saunders' involvement an outline consent being in place on the site.

Nye Saunders provided architectural services on the project in refining the design, obtaining consent for release of the planning conditions, Building Regulations consent and providing a package of detailed construction drawings for the developer / contractor.

