

TUDOR BARNS - Send

Nye Saunders LLP were approached by Martin Grant Homes to provide architectural and conservation advice for the conversion of two oak framed barns into five houses. We worked with a specialist oak framing contractor and Martin Grant Homes' direct labour during the project and with the conservation officer of Guildford Borough Council to achieve a sympathetic conversion retaining the maximum historic fabric.

